teach the students every day at such hours as may IKS appointed. There shall also be a professor of grammar, and of history and mythology applied to the dramatic art, who shall instruct especially those pupils who are intended for the Theltre Francais.

18th. (To Berthicr.) Inform the King of Naples that the whole army is moving. The Duke of Istria with the cavalry of the Guard will march four leagues W fare camping; I shall start in person to-night,

The Guard will bivouac in square around the quarters.

19th. General Sebastian!, placed about one league to the left of the King of Naples, was caught napping by a horde of Cossacks, at five in the morning of the IHth, He lost six guns at his bivouac. The enemy's infantry then marched on the rear of the King of Naples, to cut him off. The King of Naples, at the head of the earabinira and cuirassiers, broke them and cut them up.

The army is in, motion; to-morrow we slmll decide to blow up the Kremlin and to march hy Kaluga or by Viazma, so as to arrive before never weather net* in, and get into winter quarters. All i.s going well.

Well, Bapp, we are retiring on Poland; I aiiall find good winter quarters; I hope Alexander will make peac-e, (Rapp: The natives my we, uhull have- a severe winter,)

Bah! bah! with your natives! Look! S«* h«w fine it ia!

20th, Troitzkoie:

(To Berthier.) Order the Duke of TIVVMO to atari the invalids of the corpa of the Prim* of BckmUlU, of the Vice-